Five deal breakers while selecting apparel in 2023

Dressing up for any occasion requires putting together pieces that depict your style. While it can be tempting to follow trends, every trend doesn't work with everyone's style. There are certain style deal breakers when it comes to styling and here we've listed a few of them:

Wearing out-dated styles

While it isn't important to blindly follow trends, your outfits should be somewhat in line with current fashion. Select pieces that can be put together to create a statement look or that can be worn separately for a laidback look.

Wearing inappropriate sized clothes

When you wear incorrectly sized clothes that do not fit you well because they are either too small or too large, then it will look disproportionate or sloppy on you. These clothes are certainly unflattering for not only you but for people as well who see you frumpy or shapeless. Hence, it is important to find pieces that flatter your shape and fit you well.

Trying out many fashion trends at once

When you try too many fashion trends at once then it makes your fashion statement uncoordinated and cluttered. Select one or two fashion trends that balance your style with timeless and classic pieces which can be incorporated into your outfit.

Wearing clothes not fit for the occasion

Not dressing for the occasion can mean that you may turn up looking too overdressed or too underdressed. If you overly dress for a casual occasion you will stick out as soon as you arrive. Similarly, if you under dress for a formal occasion, you will certainly leave heads turning; for all the wrong reasons.

Wearing incorrect shoes

It is often you see people wearing the wrong shoes with their ensembles that don't bode well for the occasion. Always ensure your shoes compliment your outfit rather than ruining your fashion glory. When you wear the wrong shoes, in some way or another, your overall outfit looks bad. Hence, you must choose the right ones, matching the style of your outfit.
